Media

Green and Black Cross is a solidarity organisation. We are not participants of the actions we support, nor do we campaign. We recognise the importance of campaigning against repressive policing, and therefore we are a participant group in the Network for Police Monitoring (Netpol).

We have a policy of not giving interviews or comment to journalists, and no legal observer, medic or person working with GBC can comment on behalf of the organisation.

Information about Green and Black Cross for print can be copied from our website subject to our Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 License.

If you are a journalist looking for comment on policing of a recent protest, you can contact the Network for Police Monitoring (Netpol) by visiting netpol.org.