Get Involved

Our work takes time, energy and resources. We are entirely made up of volunteers giving their spare time.

Attend one of our workshops

The preferred way of getting involved with Green and Black Cross is by getting trained as a legal observer. These 'on the ground' support roles form the lifeblood of GBC, and are often a first step towards more involvement in the group.

» Find out how to get trained