Bustcard

Bustcards are an essential item to take with you on a protest.

They provide you with our key advice, information on stop and search and arrest, and the names and numbers of solicitors who can help you.

> We often hear stories from people who weren't carrying a bustcard as they didn't expect to be arrested. Always write the name of a solicitor and the number for the Protest Support Line (07946 541 511) on your arm. Don't be caught out!

Collect printed bustcards:

Check out this map of locations you can pick up bustcards from. If you would like to suggest other bookshops/ cafes/ venues etc to stock bustcards, get in touch!
https://bustcard.mapped.tools/

Download a bustcard:

If you notice any problems with any bustcards please email gbcresources@protonmail.com.

For resources for Scotland please see Scottish Activist & Legal Project.

ADVICE ON ARREST

Say "NO COMMENT" to all police questions during casual chats, 'booking in' & interviews. At the police station you may wish to give your name, address and date of birth to speed your release. For your protection and that of other people don't answer further questions.

Do not accept a CAUTION without advice from a recommended solicitor. This is an admission of responsibility and goes on the police national computer.

You have the right to FREE LEGAL ADVICE at the police station.
Duty solicitors don't always have experience with protest law, instead ask the police to contact one of the following:

ITN (Irvine Thanvi Natas): 020 3909 8100
HJA (Hodge Jones & Allen): 0808 274 8226
Bindmans: 0207 833 4433 / 020 7305 5638 (out of hours)

You have the right to have someone informed of your arrest (make that the Protest Support Line unless otherwise arranged: 07946 541 511).
You have the right to an interpreter if English is not your first language.
If you are or appear under 18 an appropriate adult should be called.

LEGAL QUESTIONS about PROTEST?

STOP AND SEARCH: You're not legally required to give your name and address under any stop and search power, see below website for more details. Legally you must be told the reason and the power that you are being searched under.

If you witness an arrest, want support or have legal questions about protest:
